PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Heavenly Father,
 from the beginning you have chosen to entrust the human person to mothers in a special way. We thank and praise you for the gift of mothers; for their tenderness, care, and compassion, for their intuition and encouragement, for commitment and sacrifice.
 Bless all mothers this day.
 Keep, strengthen, and refresh them in your loving care.
 May they be blessed by our open-hearted love and gratitude. Amen.

SACRED HEART MEN'S GROUP (SHMG)

Men, try something different next Saturday and come to SHMG which meets in the Friendship Room on Saturday mornings. Contact Karl Prigge 301-653-6451 to get on the SHMG WhatsApp chat. Receive a morning prayer to start your day off right!

IMPORTANT UPDATE

Summer Camp at Sacred Heart

After many months of consideration, discussion, and prayer, we are announcing that Sacred Heart Summer Camp will take a different direction this year. For many reasons, we have concluded that attempting our usual 6-week camp is not prudent now. Instead, we will have 2 weeks of an altered version of our camp in July, striving to offer the best parts of camp during that time. Specifics and sign-ups will be published as soon as possible.

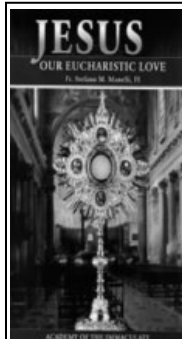

We have been greatly blessed and honored to get to know so many families throughout our community these last 4 years of camp. Our counselors have worked hard to provide a fun, safe, and faith-filled environment for our campers, and we are proud of the good work that has been done through our camp. We are praying for our camp families, and we pray that you will continue to support our efforts.

If there are any questions, you can contact Anna Albrittain at summercamp@sacredheartlaplata.org or 240-901-2254.

—Don't Miss Out in this Month of May— SCRIPTURE STUDY ON OUR BLESSED MOTHER!

Do you think the Bible has very little to say about Mary? Think again. Join Deacon Bil each Sunday during May to learn more about our Blessed Mother from the pages of Scripture. Bring your Bible (Old & New Testaments) to the Parish Conference Room (formerly called the "Upper Room") after the 9 a.m. Mass. Can't make Sunday? Each Sunday's class will be repeated on Tuesday evenings at 7 p.m. as well.

Can't make every class? Feel free to join the weeks you are able.

From the Book "Jesus our Eucharistic Love"

When one loves truly and loves greatly, one begins to adore. Great love and adoration are two distinct things; but they form a whole. They become adoring love and loving adoration. Jesus in the tabernacle is adored only by those who truly love Him, and He is loved in an eminent manner by whoever adores Him.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

PRIESTS' CORNER

In the Loving Hands of Our Lady, "Behold Your Mother"

This weekend we celebrate Mother's Day. We give thanks to God for the wonderful, beautiful gift of our mother, those women who have nurtured us, who have prayed for us, guided us, and reflected for us the tender loving care of Our Blessed Mother and Her Son.

Whether your mother is with us now or whether your mother is with the Lord looking down on us today, we hold them in our hearts with gratitude and love.

As Catholics, we are also invited this day to turn our gaze towards the Blessed Virgin Mary, the loving Mother of Jesus and our spiritual Mother. At the foot of the cross, Mary stood while Her son bore the weight of the world and He, looking down towards His Mother and the Beloved Disciple, said with great mercy and love to them both: "Woman, behold your son!" and "Behold your Mother!" (John 19:27) In this very intimate, beautiful moment, Our Lord from the cross entrusted each and everyone of us to Mary's maternal everlasting love and care, and us into Her mantle of peace and love.

Mary is for us the perfect model of motherhood for all women. Her life was marked by her Fiat, Her yes to God's plan to bare in Her virginal womb the Son of God! In Her silence and strength, in Her joy and Her sorrow, she shows all people what it means to walk with another, whether it be your physical child, your adopted child, your spiritual child. She shows all people how to nurture and love through all the moments of life.

For those who may find this weekend difficult because of loss, longing, or broken relationships, Mary is there as a source of comfort, a source of joy, a source of peace..., a source of Love. She, too, knew suffering as she met Her Son on His way to calvary. She, too, wept. She, too, waited in longing and hope.

Let us, then take this weekend to honor ALL mothers, whether they be mothers of the flesh or mothers in the spirit, and entrust them all into the loving care of Our Lady. May she wrap Her mantle of peace and love around them all, to intercede for them, protect them, and draw them close into the hearts of Her and Her Son's. And may each and everyone of us regardless of our state in life, or situation the Lord has placed on our shoulders, strive to reflect Mary's maternal spirit, a spirit of compassion, patience, and faithful eternal love for all people we meet.

Holy Mary, Mother of God,
Pray for us!
Our Lady, Shield of Peace,
Pray for us!

Cemetery News

In order to maintain the appearance of the cemetery and to provide easy access for the lawn mowing crew, volunteers will periodically remove decorations from the gravesite grounds. Please refrain from placing anything on gravesite grounds. Most items can be found in the northeast corner of the cemetery. Thank you for your help and cooperation.

Happy Mother's Day!

Mother's Day is a wonderful opportunity to highlight the beautiful vocation of motherhood and the gift of life. It calls us to cherish the gift of life that we receive from our mothers and to pray for all women to whom God has entrusted life in a very special way.

Mothers can suffer the greatest heartaches, the greatest joys, and everything imaginable in between. This Mother's Day, let's give each other grace. Moms nowadays are inundated with information and opinions and media and choices and advice, and we are thrown into doing so much with very little help sometimes. Let's say a little prayer for each other for strength, courage, and patience.

Mary, Jesus's mother and the greatest of all models to look up to when getting through our day-to-day life, is someone we can turn to and ask for intercession. Our Blessed Mother, even in her perfection, still somehow experienced similar feelings to those that we feel as mothers. Mary and so many other women were great mothers and we can be too.

Finally, let's pray a rosary for mothers. God loves all of His children, it's our job to meet our sisters and brothers on life's mission and be an apostle to them on the road. As you pray these prayers, take a moment in your humility to put aside anger, resentment, stress and distraction.

On each bead, pray for a mother you know or someone you've never met.

Consider praying for.....

- the mother who is anxious
- the mother who has suffered the loss of a child(ren)
- the mother who is estranged from her own mother
- the single mother
- the mother who feels alone in her motherhood
- the mother who has had miscarriage(s)
- the mother who is scared and worried
- the mother who is experiencing homelessness
- the mother who is in an abusive relationship
- the mother who has had an abortion
- the mother who has healthy children
- the mother who has special needs child(ren)
- the step-mother
- the mother who is the breadwinner
- the mother who has addictions
- the mother who forgets about her own self-worth and doubts herself
- the mother who is without faith
- the newly pregnant mother
- the working mother and stay-at-home mother
- every mother

Amen.
