Pope Leo XIII May 1899 on Consecration to the Sacred Heart

Since there is in the Sacred Heart a symbol and a sensible image of the infinite love of Jesus Christ which moves us to love one another, therefore it is fit and proper that we should consecrate ourselves to His most Sacred Heart an act which is nothing else than an offering and a binding of oneself to Jesus Christ, seeing that whatever honor, veneration and love is given to this divine Heart is really truly given to Christ Himself. He also approved the Litany of the Sacred Heart for public use.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PRIEST'S CORNER

GOSPEL MEDITATION

July 27, 2025

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 11:1-13

Once I went to a hospice facility to celebrate Last Rites for an elderly dying man. His family had told me that he had been uncommunicative for days. At the conclusion of the ritual, we began to recite the Our Father prayer. To everyone's surprise, his lips moved, clearly mouthing the words to the Lord's prayer. Stripped of most of his faculties, the man could still pray those precious God-given petitions. A lifetime of prayer had planted the words even deeper than his failing consciousness.

Do we want the Lord's prayer to be as deeply embedded in us? If we want to be people of hope, we should. Recall that our Lord immediately follows the prayer by saying: "Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you" (Luke 11:9). We only ask, search and knock because we hope that the request is not in vain. Everything we could possibly hope for is contained in the prayer. Praying the Our Father deepens our hope.

We should consciously pour all our hopes into the Lord's prayer; we should allow it to be an expression of hope, not simply rote words. Then, over time, it builds up our hope in God. It sinks deep into our souls and bodies. How blessed we are when these words of hope are on our lips, even when everything else seems to fail.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA

This week we celebrate a spiritual master! Not only is St. Ignatius Loyola the founder of the Jesuits, but the legacy of his life of prayer -- now called Ignatian spirituality -- inspired believers the world over. Injured as a young soldier, Ignatius spent his time in recovery reading the lives of the saints. They inspired his soul to holy heroism, changing his life forever. Ignatius gathered a group of friends who also desired to be "contemplatives in action," finding God in all circumstances. This became the Jesuits -- a great missionary and teaching order. Ignatius himself was constantly attuned to his own inner promptings. This self-knowledge -- open to the movements of the Holy Spirit -- led him to be an incredibly astute spiritual director. For Ignatius, recognizing God as the first principle of one's life determined everything. How has God changed you?

Humanae Vitae (On Human Life)

On Friday, July 25, the Catholic Church recalled the anniversary of Humanae Vitae, Pope St. Paul VI's encyclical on contraception and reproductive ethics. His writings reaffirmed long-held Church teachings about human nature and new life, but also explained how this wisdom is to be applied in our modern culture.

#1. God is the Author of Life, and the Lives He Creates are Sacred. God wills into existence every life brought into the world as part of His plan for creation. We are made in His image and likeness and as the Supreme Creator, it is He who has mastery over life and death. To interfere with life between conception and natural death is in essence usurping God's ultimate authority.

#2. Procreation is the Heart of Marriage. The marital relationship of complete love is privileged to be the instrument God uses to bring new lives into the world. Marriage is designed for procreation on both the spiritual and physical levels, and children are the "supreme gift" of marriage.

#3. Openness to Procreation Affirms the Dignity of Women. Humanae Vitae points out that when a woman's sacred ability to give life is taken away through contraception, her role in a sexual encounter will often be that of an object of pleasure.

#4. It Is Not Always God's Will for a Couple to Conceive.

#5. Couples May Take Advantage of Infertile Periods Provided by God to Temporarily Avoid Conception.

#6. Artificial Birth Control Is a Recipe for Cultural Disaster. In Humanae Vitae, Pope St. Paul VI states: Moral standards would be lowered, marital infidelity would increase, and disrespect for womanhood would follow.

#7. Change the Culture, Instead of Ignoring the Moral Law That "Doesn't Fit" Our Culture. Fertility is not a disease, it is a gift. No solution is permissible if it violates the dignity of man and woman, made in God's image.

Humanae Vitae gives the Church's answer to questions of love and child rearing between married couples, specifically questions that have arisen from the conditions of the modern world. May we pray for couples and families to be open to this beautiful, holy message.
